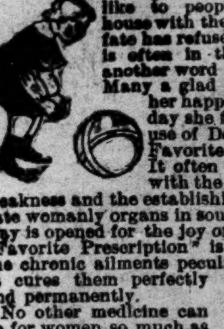
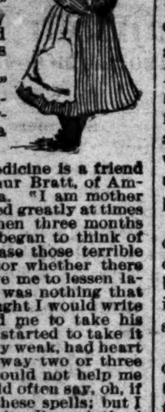
Library of Congress

Who would exchange the merry noise of children at play, with the childless home where the clock tick can be heard hour after hour in the dull silence? But there are a great many who would like to people the silent house with the children that fate has refused them. Fate is often in this case only another word for ignorance. Many a glad mother dates her happiness from the day she first began the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It often happens that with the cure of female weakness and the establishing of the delicate womanly organs in sound health, the way is opened for the joy of motherhood. "Favorite Prescription" is a specific for the chronic ailments peculiar to women. It cures them perfectly and permanently.



No other medicine can do for women so much as "Favorite Prescription." Do not therefore let any other medicine be palmed off on you as "just as good."



"Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, opium, cocaine or other narcotic. It is strictly a temperance medicine.

"I can truly say your medicine is a friend of mine," writes Mrs. Arthur Bratt, of Amherstburg, Ontario, Canada. "I am mother of four children and suffered greatly at times of birth of first three. When three months along with the last one I began to think of trying some medicine to ease those terrible pains, and asked our doctor whether there was anything he could give me to lessen labor pains. He said there was nothing that could help me. I then thought I would write to Dr. Pierce. He advised me to take his 'Favorite Prescription.' I started to take it at fourth month. I was very weak, had heart trouble and would faint away two or three times a day. Our doctor could not help me and life was a drag. I would often say, oh, if I could only die in one of these spells; but I took five bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and felt better every way. Got along well at the time of delivery. I had heard of painless childbirth, and I thought it must be a good medicine that would help those pains, but I know now for myself, and can not tell it plain enough. Your 'Favorite Prescription' is the best medicine as we mothers know. I advise my friends to try it. Baby is now four months old and is a strong healthy boy."

WEAK

are caused by Indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of Indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart.

Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol
Dyspepsia Cure

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.
MRS. LORING NICHOLS, Penn Yan, N. Y.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me.

THE FRENCH NOTE.

A dispatch from Berlin says that the French note, which was delivered Tuesday, may not contribute to bring about an understanding with Germany over Morocco. France, it is said, claims too many privileges. Even in case a conference takes place, Germany will probably continue her direct negotiations with the Sultan of Morocco at Fez, unless Premier Rouvier changes his policy.

Official circles in Paris observe the outward appearance of entire tranquility over the Franco-German negotiations, but an undercurrent of considerable anxiety prevails relative to Germany's answer to the French note.

This is somewhat intensified by publications purporting to give Germany's intention to insist that the Moroccan conference be not trammeled by specific limitations upon its scope.

Nothing, however, has yet been received from official sources indicating that such is the purpose of Germany, and Premier Rouvier's associates maintain that as his note is couched in a calm, conciliatory tone, there is reason to expect that Germany will answer him in a similar, spirit of conciliation. However, a considerable element in parliamentary circles shows much solicitude regarding the outcome of the negotiations.

Reports from the frontier continue to show marked military activity and a feeling of unrest among the people living along the border. The influential press, evidently in accordance with the wishes of the government, refrains from discussing the military aspect, asserting that the negotiations, while in a delicate stage, continue normal.

The gloomy sentiment increased during yesterday afternoon, owing to the circulation of alarmist reports. These had a marked influence on the Bourse, where rentes suffered an unusual decline of over 40 centimes, finally closing at 35 centimes below the last quotations of Tuesday. Much excitement accompanied the trading.

The evening papers sought to allay public uneasiness. The semi-official Paris Temps expressed the government view that the exchange of notes would serve to remove false impressions and produce a durable agreement, if Germany was prepared to reciprocate the conciliatory advances of M. Rouvier.

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION.

Amid accompaniments of medieval pomp and circumstance the aged Emperor of Austria, King of Hungary and Bohemia, etc., Francis Joseph, took part in the yearly Corpus Christi procession in Vienna yesterday. He was greeted enthusiastically by his people as he was driven through the streets of the inner city.

Beginning with the earliest morning hours, the streets of the inner city of Vienna were filled with movement and life in expectation of the coming procession, and by 7 o'clock the windows, balconies and stands along the line of march were crowded with people. The streets were decorated with flags, boughs of trees and many colored hangings, and at convenient places temporary open-air altars had been erected.

The procession started from the Hofburg, proceeded to the cathedral on the Stefanspiatz, where the religious ceremonies were held, and then returned to the Hofburg.

Gorgeous colors, crimson, gold and silver, magnificent uniforms and trappings, glowing tunics, the clanking march of soldiers and the silent tread of the clergy in strange contrast, the flashing of jewels and the glare in the sunlight of the white robes of priests, barbaric and brilliant splendor and silent prayers marked the progress of the sacred and military procession in honor of the Consecrated Host.

The lesser clergy came first. Then equerries, pages and others of the imperial household. Kettle drummers in gala uniform, the court chamberlains, many high personages of state, generals and other high military officers followed. The host was borne by the Archbishop of Vienna, surrounded by prelates of the church, and after him came the Emperor.

In former years it was the custom of the Emperor to walk, but now, because of his age, he rides. Yesterday he appeared in a gala coach, drawn by eight of the royal white horses and accompanied by Archduke Franz Ferdinand, the successor to the throne. The other archdukes, all in magnificent uniforms, were in royal carriages and came after him.

The procession marched to the main entrance of the cathedral and went in through the broad doors facing on the Stefansplatz. After the religious ceremonies it took its way back to the Hofburg over another line of march in order to give the people of the city a chance to witness its glittering pageantry. From one of the balconies of the palace the procession was witnessed by the archduchesses and their children.

The ceremonies came to an end with the defiling before the Emperor of the troops which had taken part therein.

Help for Women Passing Through Change of Life

Providence has allotted us each at least seventy years in which to fulfill our mission in life, and it is generally our own fault if we die prematurely.

Mrs. Mary Koehne

Nervous exhaustion invites disease. This statement is the positive truth.

When everything becomes a burden and you cannot walk a few blocks without excessive fatigue, and you break out into perspiration easily, and your face flushes, and you grow excited and shaky at the least provocation, and you cannot bear to be crossed in anything, you are in danger; your nerves have given out; you need building up at once! To build up woman's nervous system and during the period of change of life we know of no better medicine than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here is an illustration. Mrs. Mary L. Koehne, 371 Garfield Avenue, Chicago, Ill., writes:

"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for years in my family and it never disappoints; so when I felt that I was nearing the change of life I commenced treatment with it. I took in all about six bottles and it did me a great deal of good. It stopped my dizzy spells, pains in my back and the headaches with which I had suffered for months before taking the Compound. I feel that if it had not been for this great medicine for women that I should not have been alive to-day. It is splendid for women, old or young, and will surely cure all female disorders."

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick and ailing women to write her for advice. Her great experience is at their service, free of cost.

Quality vs. Quantity.

Hard muscles and strong body do not depend on the quantity of food you eat, but on its perfect digestion and proper assimilation. When you take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure your system gets all the nourishment out of all the food you eat. It digests what you eat regardless of the condition of the stomach and conveys the nutrient properities to the blood and tissues. This builds up and strengthens the entire system. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Belching, Sour Stomach, Weak Heart, etc. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick.

Found a Cure for Dyspepsia.

Mrs. S. Lindsay, of Fort William, Ontario, Canada, who was suffering quite a number of years from dyspepsia and great pains in the stomach, was advised by her druggist to take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. She did so and says, "I find that they have done me a great deal of good. I have never had any suffering since I began using them." If troubled with dyspepsia or indigestion why not take these Tablets, get well and stay well? For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Torture of a Preacher.

The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church, of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased conditions of Throat and Lungs. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 23, 1905.

DEFENDING his course in the controversy with Francis B. Loomis, First Assistant Secretary of State, Herbert W. Bowen, formerly Minister to Venezuela, replies to President Roosevelt's letter dismissing him from the diplomatic service by asseiting that he refused an offer of promotion inspired by Loomis, regarding it as an attempt at bribery. Mr. Bowen tells of sending to the State Department information of the report current in Caracas "that an incriminating check to Mr. Loomis and a letter from him to the custodian of the asphalt property promising that the United States would not intervene, in Venezuela, were in the hands of one of President Castro's friends. "Shortly afterward," he continues, "I received a cable from the State Department offering to me a post that was intended to be my stepping stone to an ambassadorship, and I declined the offer." While dismissal cannot be regarded as too great a penalty for Mr. Bowen's misconduct Mr. Loomis seems to have escaped too easily. Though the main charges of Mr. Bowen were not proven, there were others less serious, but still serious enough to merit something more than a mild reprimand. On these lines the Philadelphia Record says:

> A diplomatic representative abroad has no business to be interested in schemes of flotation and exploitation launched by his fellow-countrymen; particularly in a country like Venezuela, which seems to be in the class of countries whose public contracts frequently become the subjects of diplomatic intervention. To call such actions on the part of a plenipotentiary "indiscretions" is to give a very favorable construction to them. The extraordinary interest taken by the State Department in the litigation between the asphalt trust and the Venezuelan government may not be due to the secret interest therein of persons near the administration; but in such cases the government ought to be as far above the reach of suspicion as Caesar's wife.

GERMANY is to have a flying squadrons in the Pacific and Indian Oceans in attempts to overshadow England and the United States in their trade with the Orient. Dispatches from Berlin are of the most boastful nature. They are in effect that now that Germany is supreme upon land, it is the intention of that country to usurp Brittania in ruling the waves. "Whom the gods wish to destroy they first make mad" is an ancient observation, and it may be fulfilled in Germany's case. Now that Russia's maritime power has received a set-back at the hands of Japan, it is Germany's purpose to profit by the Czar's misfortune, and the Kaiser, whose dreams have long been extravagant, imagines that everything must get out of the way of the Teuton. He is prone to play with fire, and sooner or later will be compelled to show his prowess or back away from those he is ever menacing. Frederick the Great, one of his predecessors, occasionally exhibited similar mischievousness, and supposed Prussia was invulnerable when he robbed Maria Theresa of Silesia, but the time came when the French marched into Berlin.

NAVAL OFFICERS are figuring upon a naval programme which will place the United States in position to play a leading role in the world-power drama in the not distant future. According to the best authority in Washington the United States will need a navy three times the size of that now in commission and authorized in order to maintain its position as a dominating world power. In other words, the United States will need a fleet of between 75 and 80 battleships, 75 or 80 cruisers, armored and protected, and a torpedo and mosquito fleet of like proportions. These naval authorities feel that the United States must concentrate its greatest naval power in the Caribbean sea. Such a programme would involve the expenditure of an additional $800,000,000 or so in the construction and arming of vessels, but many now in authority consider this a mere bagatelle when a "world power" is taken into consideration, and they have a chance of securing some of the "swag" resulting from such a tremendous expenditure of money, which chance, of course, they would not throw over their shoulders.

THAT a conflict between France and Germany in the near future is inevitable is still believed in some European capitals. The Moroccan trouble will be the pretext on the part of Germany for precipitating war, although it is known that the real matter which incenses the German Emperor is the present relations between England and France. Germany, as was stated yesterday, is not satisfied with the French note, and is seemingly determined to force France into a conflict. It is possible to contract hostilities between the two nations, but this is exceedingly improbable, as other countries besides France are affected by German aggression.

Col. D. C. Dunn, who served with distinction in the Confederate army, died yesterday at Lee Camp Soldiers' Home, Richmond, aged seventy-seven years.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., June 23.

It is announced that no notice will be taken by Assistant Secretary of State Loomis with regard to the statement issued by Herbert W. Bowen, former Minister to Venezuela, Wednesday, in which Mr. Bowen reiterates his charges to the effect that Mr. Loomis was dishonest in his dealings in Venezuela while Minister to that country. If Mr. Bowen, however, persists in reiteration of the charges, the matter will be put into legal hands for adjustment. This of course means that action for libel will be instituted by Mr. Loomis against Mr. Bowen.

It is officially denied at the White House that President Roosevelt's eyesight is falling and that he has become so much alarmed over the condition of his eyes that he is to visit a famous specialist in Boston next week. He will call at the office of Dr. Morgan, the Roosevelt family eye specialist, when he visits Harvard next Tuesday, but he goes merely to have the lenses in his glasses changed to met the alteration in the nerves that age is making in his sight, as in the case with almost every one else, whether he be a wearer of glasses or not.

Most of the time of the Cabinet meeting today was devoted to a discussion of the threatened boycott upon American goods by the Chinese in retaliation for our over-zealous administration of the exclusion laws. "It is beginning to look like a serious situation," said Secretary Taft after the meeting. "We did not reach any conclusion in regard to future action, but I guess something can be done. Perhaps about the best thing to do would be to be more careful in selecting the Chinese we arrest. The mistakes in the administration of the law more than the law itself seem to have been responsible for the trouble. The serious thing about it all is, too, that if the Chinese once get it into their heads that they are not being treated right, we'll never be able to get it out of their heads." Secretary Wilson said that although the investigation into the "cotton leak" was progressing favorably, nothing new had been discovered in the case. Secretary Hay went to the White House twenty minutes before the time set for the Cabinet meeting and remained in conference with the President until his fellow members arrived. It is understood that Mr. Hay brought a number of dispatches bearing on the peace negotiations which had been reached during the President's absence. The meeting was the last before the President's vacation, and unless such occasion arises as to warrant his return during the summer to Washington the next gathering of the Cabinet will be in the autumn. It was also the last Cabinet meeting for Secretary Morton who retires June 30. For the first time in a number of months every member was present.

General Agent Rennie, at Hong Kong, representing the great flour exporting firms of Seattle, Tacoma and other points in the northwest, cabled President Roosevelt today that unless something were done speedily to counteract the effect of the recent rigorous enforcement of the Chinese exclusion law, a general boycott would surely be declared in China against American flour. It was Mr. Rennie's cablegram which caused the discussion of the subject of a Chinese boycott at today's Cabinet meeting.

It is reported that the Crawford jury stood 9 to 3 in favor of acquittal. In view of this vote it is not probable that he will ever again be called for trial and that the indictment will be quashed.

Four additional casses of yellow fever are reported today from the isthmus of Panama by Gov. Magoon.

Captain W. Dumakovki and other officers intended to start for America while the others will remain in Galicia. Believing that Japan would be sacrificing too great an opportunity to give Russia another crushing defeat, Great Britain will not suggest an armistice at this time. Count Cassini, the retiring Russian ambassador at Washington, will not participate in the peace negotiations. There will be three plenipotentiaries on each side.

That Germany has any designs upon a coaling base in Caribbean waters a report as to which has been heretofore disclaimed, was given an emphatic denial yesterday by Baron Speck von Sternburg, the German Ambassador. The Ambassador is spending this month at a cottage which he has leased at Deer Park, Md., but is in constant touch with the embassy at Washington, whence newspaper reports had reached him about alleged designs of Germany in the Caribbean.

Twenty-two persons were killed as the result of Thursday's firing by dragoons and Cossacks on a procession of 50,000 workmen in Lodz, Russian Poland, which had been organized as a demonstration against the government. Ten of the about 100 wounded are dying. Two women were crushed to death in the rush of the panic-stricken crowd after the firing began. Yesterday morning some workmen, in revenge for last night's shooting, shot and killed a Cossack and two policemen.

Putting her religion above all price, Mrs. Lucinda Ganson, of Davenport, Iowa, has refused to accept $30,000 left to her by the will of the late Charles Simpson, a Sacramento, Cal., wealthy friend of the Ganson family, the bequest being made on condition that Mrs. Ganson become a Catholic. In the event of her refusal of the money on this condition the will provides that the money shall go to a Catholic orphanage in Sacramento. "Thirty thousand dollars is an immense sum to refuse," said Mrs. Ganson yesterday, "but I cannot think of changing my religion or belief for any amount of money."

No Labor Monopoly.

The Massachusetts Supreme Court, as stated yesterday, handed down a decision on Wednesday holding that the attempt to force laborers to combine in unions is against the policy of the law, because it aims at a monopoly of the labor market.

The decision was in the case of Michael F. Berry against Jerry E. Donovan, representative of the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union, and the defendant is held personally liable to damages for obtaining the discharge of Berry, a non-union shoemaker, from his position in a Haverhill shoe factory because he was not a member of the union. The court holds that the contention that the discharge of Berry was justified upon the score of warrantable competition was not a good defense in the case. The plaintiff was authorized to recover judgment upon the $1,500 verdict ordered at a trial in a lower court.

The employing firm was under agreement with the union to hire only union men and not to retain a workman after a notice from the union that he was objectionable. Donovan claimed that he acted under this agreement, but the court holds he was not justified. The court says:

"We have no desire to put obstacles in the way of employes who are seeking by combination to obtain better conditions for themselves and their families. We only say that under correct rules of law and with a proper regard for the rights of individuals labor unions cannot be permitted to drive men out of employment because they choose to work independently."

Distiller Fined $22,000.

D. L. Arey, a wealthy liquor manufacturer of Salisbury, N. C., was given his choice of two sentences for violation of the revenue laws by Judge James E. Boyd, of the United States District Court, at Charlotte. He could serve a term of two years' imprisonment and pay a fine of $5,000 and the costs or pay $24,000 of taxes defrauded from the government, serve a term of three months' imprisoment and pay a fine of $200 and costs.

Later the district attorney accepted a plea of guilty of defrauding the government of $22,000. Arey agreed to pay this amount with the costs. An order is issued holding open the three months' imprisonment sentence and binding Arey, who is in bad health, to appear later, and if his health is improved the imprisment is to be served.

Headley, of Philadelphia, and William C. Thelin, of Lewiston, Penn. The flower girls were Miss May Kirk and Miss Floy Vandenburg. Mr. Griswold Thelin, a brother of the bride, gave her away, and Mr. Walter Clarkson, of Washington, was best man.

McGilvary and Thomas Out.

As stated in the Gazette of that day a sensational termination of the investigation of charges by J. D. Eggleston in regard to the publication of the state school register came like a thunderclap in Richmond yesterday shortly after the meeting of the State Board of Education. A paper was read which had been prepared by counsel and signed by J. P. Thomas and J. A. McGilvary.

They both confess that their former evidence was false; that Mr. McGilvary did receive a portion of the money for the school register, and that he acted improperly in so doing. Mr. Thomas also admitted that he testified falsely, but he says he did it in McGilvary's behalf. Both have resigned, Mr. Thomas from the superintendency of the City High School, and Mr. McGilvary as clerk to the department of public instruction.

When the paper was read there was an appalling silence, and every member present showed that he was deeply affected. An explanation followed the reading of the confession, or, as the counsel termed it, the admissions. Mr. Thomas, as far as he was able, attempted to shield Mr. McGilvary, claiming that he induced him to run for superintendent of public instruction, and that his false statements were made in an endeavor to shield him from a political attack. After a time both men asked to be allowed to retire, and they left the room.

Mr. McGilvary for two months has been suffering with a carbuncle, which has sapped his strength. Mr. Thomas recently fell from a street car, and has for weeks worn his arm in a sling. Both men show the mental and physical suffering they have endured, and as they left the room, almost nervous wrecks, there was a look of deep pity in the eyes of the board. No incident in a long time has created a greater sensation.

It is understood that this confession will not stop the investigation, but that the board will continue until the case is complete. The fact that the former testimony of Thomas McGilvary was not given under oath will save them from prosecution of perjury. It may be that they will be prosecuted in another form. Under the circumstances they will not be allowed to resign, but will be discharged from their positions. They are both men of high social position and each has a large connection in Richmond.

The State board last night adopted a resolution recommending that the superintendent of public instruction at once dismiss McGilvary from office. His conduct is pronounced exceedingly reprehensible. Thomas is not under the board's jurisdiction, but the body reached him by declaring void the contract with the Hill Printing Company in so far as teachers' registers are concerned. The action of Thomas is condemned in unsparing terms, but the Hill Company is declared guiltless.

The resignation of J. A. McGilvary will naturally preclude his candidacy for the position of Superintendent of Public Instruction. This will leave only one candidate in the field, that being Joseph D. Eggleston, whose candidacy was announced some time ago. However, that is a strong liklihood that Secretary F. P. Brent will become a candidate.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Equitable.

New York, June 23.—District Attorney Jerome has begun an official investigation of the affairs of the Equitable Life Assurance Society. This morning he appeared before Recorder Goff in part 4, of the court of general sessions, and made a motion that the June term of the court, which ends next Thursday, be continued indefinitely in order that the public prosecutor might have the aid and advice of the court in connection with the investigation he proposes to make of the Equitable's affairs. Mr. Jerome stated that he had already arranged with Justice Davy, of Rochester, to continue the June term of the criminal branch of the supreme court on the similar petition for a similar reason. The district attorney stated that he had received a letter from Governor Higgins this morning requesting him to give this matter his official attention.

Julius Mayer, Attorney General of this State, began preparations today to bring suits against the officers of the Equitable Society, for the recovery of profits alleged to have been wrongfully acquired by reason of their position. Mr. Mayer will have nothing to do with any criminal case which may develop, as the result of the investigations of the insurance department. Information is forthcoming that the inquiries of Mr. Mayer will not be confined to the Hyde period, but the new Ryan regime is to have its status probed. With the next few days it is expected all of the twenty one directors who qualified on the Hyde stock will resign.

The Kiel Regatta.

Kiel, Germany, June 23.—The principal racers of the Kiel regatta being the Emperor's yacht, the Metor, and the Hamburg started today in a gale. Dirty weather prevailed, but this was not allowed to interfere with the race. Kaiser William was one of the passengers on the Meteor and lay on the deck enveloped in oilskins close by Ben Parker, the skipper who was at the helm. Charlemagne Tower, the American Ambassador to Germany, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Allison V. Armour, and Wilson Marshall, owner of the yacht Atlantic which won the ocean race for the Kaiser's cup, were guests of the emperor on the Meteor. The Kaiser's sons, Princes Fritz, Eitel, and Adelbert accompanied their father. Prince Henry of Prussia participated in another race, steering his yacht, the Orion, himself. In the race between the Meteor III. and the Hamburg, the Kaiser's yacht finished one minute ahead of its rival.

Did Boy Cause the Wreck?

Cleveland, Ohio, June 23.—There is some circumstantial evidence that a boy was the cause of the wreck of the Lake Shore Twentieth Century Limited train at Mentor Wednesday night. William Usher and James Barnes, of Willoughby, while on the way to the wreck twenty minutes after it occurred, met a boy carrying a lantern. They asked where he had been. "I was down to shut the switch," the lad answered, walking on. Further questions were asked. The boy called back answers which were not understood. After some hesitation, the men went on to the wreck. H. D. Storrs, general superintendent of the Lake Shore, says he heard that a Mentor lad had been telling boys that it was easy to open a switch and had shown a key with which it was said he had declared he could do it. The supposition is that the boy with the key and the boy with the lantern were the same.

Charged With Assault.

Mount Vernon, O., June 23—William Clifford was arrested last night, at Martinsburg. He is charged with assaulting Allie May Hancock, five-year-old daughter of William Hancock. When the child told her father of what had occurred, the enraged parent started to hunt Clifford up. He was found in a barber shop. When an attempt was made to arrest him, he ran several squares and darted into the Presbyterian Church where a prayer meeting was in progress. The meeting was broken up instantly. Hancock used a heavy club on his child's assailant. Constable John Dudgeon rescued Clifford and hurried him away to the office of Mayor Wilson, where he was placed under a heavy guard awaiting the arrival of a deputy sheriff, who took him to jail.

Disorders in Poland.

Warsaw, Poland, June 23.—Meagre reports which have reached here today from Lodzsay say that the disturbances which have been in progress there for several days have again broken out, and the condition is regarded as being even more serious than before. The workmen who have been made the targets of the military, have armed themselves with revolvers and in the latest clashes have not hesitated to return the fire of the troops. The reports state that 100 men were killed on both sides. The outbreak has assumed such proportions that the factories have been obliged to shut down and the workshops are all closed. Telegraphic and telephonic communications with Lodz have been interrupted so that it is impossible to get detailed information in regard to the fighting.

Outbreaks in Portugal.

Lisbon, June 23.—Serious outbreaks have occurred through Portugal, especially in the farming districts, over an attempt to levy an extra land tax. The farmers are determined to resist this additional demand made upon them and they have treated the tax collectors roughly in many instances. Recently a small army of tax collectors was sent out by the government. They experienced difficulty in trying to collect the land tax from the very start. The farmers soon resorted to violence and began driving the collectors out of their respective neighborhoods. In the Evora district two of the collectors were killed and the trouble is regarded as being serious.

New Spanish Cabinet.

Madrid, June 23.—King Alfonso has approved the cabinet formed by Premier Montero Rios which will be made up of the following statesmen: Premier, Senor Montro Rios; Foreign Affairs, Senor Sanche Roman; Interior, Senor Gracia Preito; Instruction, Senor Millado; Agriculture, Senor Romanones; Justice, Senor Gonzales Pena; War, General Weyler; Marine, Senor Villanueve; Finance, Senor Urnaig. The personnel of the cabinet is regarded as being strong, and the announcement of the ministry has been received with marks of favor.

German Aims.

Berlin, June 23.—Official announcement is made that Germany intends to maintain a permanent flying squadron, consisting of powerful fast cruisers, in the Pacific, and that a similar squadron will be maintained in the Indian Ocean. This announcement, coupled with other naval plans which the Kaiser is known to have in view, has given rise to a great deal of speculation. The innovation in regard to the flying squadron in the Pacific is intended to counteract American preponderance in that part of the world. Germany considers that the United States and Japan now monopolize the power in the Pacific Ocean, and she desires to increase the prestige of Germany there, while securing a fair share of trade for her manufacturers and merchants. Germany ambitions in the Pacific are directed largely toward South America. The squadron, which it is proposed to establish in the Indian Ocean, is for the purpose of counteracting England's preponderance there. The naval estimates for next year provide for the construction of a number of immense battleships of 17,000 tons. The draught of these vessels will prevent them from being used in the shallow waters of the Baltic or along the coast of the North Sea, so it is obvious that they are intended for aggressive purposes. These developments and the announcement made in regard to the maintenance of two flying squadrons are taken to indicate that Germany is determined to profit by the collapse of Russia and that she will attempt to seize the supremacy of the world on the water, as she now possesses it on the land.

Dissatisfaction in Stockholm.

London, June 23.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Copenhagen, Denmark, says that general dissatisfaction is felt in Stockholm and throughout Sweden at the speech delivered by King Oscar to the council of ministers in which he advocated allowing Norway to dissolve the union without a resort of arms. The government which sent a bill to the Riksdag asking for authority to enter into negotiations with Norway looking to a peaceful severing of the ties which have bound the two nations together is also severely condemned for its action. It is regarded as almost certain that the government will resign and it is rumored that King Oscar will abdicate in favor of the Crown Prince Gustavus.

Stockholm, Sweden, June 23.—The Riksdag took a recess today after a short sitting until Tuesday. At that time the members of the committee which will have charge of arranging a temporary settlement of affairs with Norway, will be named. It is not believed that any ministerial crisis can arise before the committee completes this work.

France and Germany.

Paris, June 23.—Germany's answer to the note sent to Berlin by Premier Rouvier, through Prince von Radolin, the German ambassador, in which France outlined her position on Germany's suggestion for an international conference on the subject of Morocco, is not expected to arrive here before the end of next week.

M. Regnault, the financial councillor of the Sultan of Morocco, was received at the foreign office this morning.

Berlin, June 23.—The Vorwaerts, the principal organ of the social democrats, asserts that Prince von Buelow has asked the headquarters staff whether or not Germany is prepared to go to war with France in case the present crisis, which has been brought on over the Moroccan question, develops unfavorably.

A Denial from General Miles.

Boston, June 23.—A story has been started in Philadelphia to the effect that General Nelson Miles is engaged to marry a Mrs. Huidekoper, a wealthy widow of that city. When asked about the matter this morning General Miles laughed and said: "Your question is an easy one to answer. There is not an iota of truth in the story, and you may deny it most emphatically. It is not true in regard to this lady, or with regard to any other, and I am not in that mood at present."

Desertions from Orthodox Church.

St. Petersburg, June 23.—Since Czar Nicholas issued the ukase of Easter proclaiming religious liberty throughout Russia, there have been so many desertions from the orthodox church to Catholicism that the leaders of the orthodox church have become alarmed, fearing the loss of their prestige. They have presented an appeal to the Czar urging him to take steps immediately to put an end to the Catholic propaganda.

Russia Seeking Loans.

Berlin, June 23.—It is reported here that Russia has asked several banks here for a loan and that Brussels and other capitals have also been sounded on the same subject. All the requests have been declined, it is stated, except under a guarantee that the war shall be ended in the very near future.

New York Stock Market.

New York, June 23.—During the first hour the trading had the swing of an old-time bull market. Buying orders for large blocks were put in many stocks and, although the supply was larger than at any time since the beginning of the week, the demand continued large enough to absorb all stocks offered around current quotations. In several issues prices were carried to the highest range reached in a long period. The impression prevails that the market will reach higher levels as soon as the arbitrage selling for London account is exhausted or the London selling ceases this afternoon.

U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban diarrhoea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs of Houston, Texas: "I hereby certify Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I than God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. ### America as a Gentleman.

The commencement day address at the University of Wisconsin at Madison yesterday was delivered by Hon. Carl Schurz, of New York. He said in part:

"This republic should stand as the gentleman par excellence among nations, a gentleman scorning the role of the swashbuckler whose hip pockets bulge with loaded six-shooters and who flashes big diamonds on his fingers and shirt front; a gentleman modest in the consciousness of strength and carrying justice, forbearance and conciliation on his tongue and benevolence in his hand, rather than a chip on his shoulder. If this republic is to endure and to be successful in its highest mission it must put its trust rather in schools than in battleships."

President Van Hise in an address severely scored "tainted fortunes" and deplored the upbuilding of universities by such means.

Everbody's Magazine for July, which has been received from its publishers in New York, is from cover to cover full of interesting reading. Treachery and greed are the key notes of this month's instalment of "Frenzied Finance;" the infamous launching of the "Amalgamated," the conspiracy to rob the public, and the treachery of the conspirators are graphically described. In "The Greatest Trust in the World" the final results of beef trust extortions are dealt with, as shown in the increased household expenses of the nation. Eight remarkable short stories by able writers raise the fiction average of this number far above that of any previous issue. In addition Miss Bently tells of her final "Experience" as a "Nursery Governess," and "The Players" reviews the past season on the New York stage.

The Fairfax Tragedy.

The death of Wilmer Beavers from a blow inflicted by William Simpson was announced in yesterday's Gazette. The main facts in the case vary but little from those published. Justice R. C. Triplett yesterday directed Constable A. J. Payne to summon a jury and an inquest was held. A verdict was rendered to the effect that Beavers' death was due to cerebral hemorrhage, the result of a blow inflicted by Simpson, who acted in self-defence, and was exonerated. An autopsy was held by Drs. Moore and Smith, of this city. The evidence before the jury was to the effect that the trouble between the two men occurred last Saturday evening on a side road belonging to Simpson. The latter had been looking after some cows and was on his way home when Beavers, who was some distance away, raised a double-barrelled gun and discharged one of the loads at Simpson. On account of the distance the charge was about spent when it reached its mark, and although the shot struck Simpson on the legs, they failed to injure him. Beavers approached Simpson, when the latter asked his assailant the meaning of his conduct. Beavers made a defiant reply, advanced on Simpson, placed the muzzle of the gun against his abdomen and pulled one of the triggers for the purpose of discharging the other barrel. He, fortunately for Simpson, pulled the wrong trigger, and the weapon snapped. Simpson, realizing that his assailant intended to kill him, wrenched the gun from Beavers and dealt him a severe blow over the head, knocking him down. Beavers immediately arose and procuring an axe started after Simpson. The latter struck him again with the gun, knocking him down and rendering him unable to renew the attack. Simpson notified the authorities and Constable Payne took possession of the gun and found the unexploded charge in the barrel which Beavers attempted to fire into Simpson. On Tuesday, Beavers realizing that his injuries were serious, came to this city with Constable Payne to obtain surgical aid. Upon his return home his condition became alarming and his death followed at an early hour yesterday morning Beavers' remains were forwarded this morning by Mr. B. Wheatley to Manassas, where they will be interred. Thedeceased leaves a wife and five children.

The Firefighter.

Commissioner Macfarland of the District of Columbia yesterday inspected the fire boat Firefighter, witnessed a test of the pumps, and urged the contractors to hasten the minor changes necessary to fit the boat for service. The two things remaining to be done by the contractors are to put the pumps in complete working order, the test yesterday showing that they were not working smoothly, and to furnish monitor nozzles of the type required by the specifications. The Firefighter cost much less than the George B. McClellan, the latest New York fire boat, but it is said to be as fast and just as well equipped for firefighting purposes, though smaller and less ornamental, and more economically built. The Firefighter is also designed to be an ice-breaker.

Montague and Hannibal.

Governor Montague is reported to have said in his recent speech in Alexandria that "some momentous issues would come before the Senate," and intimated that Mr. Martin could not be equal to the occasion, but that he, Mr. Montague would be. Well, I suppose the Governor is excusable for a little vanity and self-esteem. He has an exemplar in one great man of ancient times, Hannibal, the great Carthagenian Commander. Liby, in his history of Rome, gives an account of an interview between Hannibal and Scipio, the great Roman Commander, after Hannibal had been defeated in the battle of Zaena, and in the course of conversation Scipio asked Hannibal who, in his opinion, was the greatest commander that ever lived, and he said Alexander the Great. Who next? Pyrrhus; and then, who next? "I, myself," said Hannibal, "beyond doubt." Well, said Scipio, "what would you have said if you had defeated me?" "I would," said Hannibal, "have regarded myself as greater than all generals who have ever lived or will live." Now, as between Mr. Martin and Mr. Montague, I will not attempt to decide which is the greater. Non nostrum componere tantas litis." NEMO.

The Bells.

There are several among the congregation of Christ Church who attend the early service Sunday mornings. For their benefit the bell is rung twice—at seven and again at seven-thirty. On the other hand, there are several in the neighborhood who do not attend these services, and who look forward to their Sunday morning's extra rest with blissful anticipation. The peace of mind of the latter has been rudely shaken in times past, and was especially disturbed Sunday morning last, when the bell rang eighth-four times at seven o'clock and one hundred and eighteen times at seven-thirty. They do not object to anyone worshiping at any time he or she may see fit, but they do think, however, that the sexton is a trifle over-zealous in the performance of his duty, and that a few less that two hundred and two strokes of the bell should be sufficient to rouse all true believers. ### Norway Wants Recognition.

A request has been made by the "government of Norway" to the United States that that government be recognized as existing by President Roosevelt. A communication from Mr. Archbender, as minister of foreign affairs, as well as of commerce, navigation and industry, reached the State Department yesterday. It was the formal notification to this government that the government of Norway, as it is termed in the note, has been formally established, and ready to take up any matter which may arise between this country and Norway. While the note is not precisely a request for recognition, it amounts to practically the same thing.

The course which will be taken by the government has not been determined. The note, which arrived at the State Department yesterday, will be taken to the White House today, when President Roosevelt has returned, and will, in all probability, be discussed at the Cabinet meeting.

If it is shown that the government is stable and that the dissolution of Norway is effected with peace and without bloodshed this government will act favorably.

In the note which was received yesterday it is termed only as the government of Norway, and there is nothing to indicate the precise nature of the organization of the government. If the Norwegians decide on a republic this government will be quick to recognize her.

Panic at a Race Track.

Flashing lightning, roaring thunder and a sweeping, solid downpour of whirling rain struck the great crowd at the Sheepshead Bay race-track yesterday with a suddenness that created a panic that started men and women struggling and fighting back from the rail and across the open lawns to the grandstands, slipping and falling in the wet grass.

Some of the women were trod upon and others in the rush to the grandstand and the crush of the crowd into the rear seats and aisles had their gowns ripped and torn almost off. The vivid lightning and the rumbling thunder frightened women into hysterics. The rain swirled and swept in upon the galleries of the clubhouse and came so suddenly that the fashionable gowns of some of the women, among whom were Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, Mrs. Belmont and Mrs. H. B. Duryea were drenched.

A peculiar accident occurred during the storm. While the bookmakers were laying odds on the field of the Surf Stakes an electric bolt hit the wire supplying the light to the betting ring and the inclosure of the ring became a darkened room. Betting operations were suspended and bookmakers' cashiers gathered the bankrolls under their coats and clung to their crews for protection.

Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle, with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won and by the use of Electric Bitters. In unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine."
